PLANO COMMUNITY BAND CONDUCTORS

JOE FRANK, JR., Plano Community Band's Artistic Director and Principal Conductor, is a retired music educator and band director with over 35 years of experience working with student and adult musicians in Texas and Georgia. For Joe's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

JIM CARTER, Plano Community Band's Associate Conductor, Business Manager & Event Coordinator, was born in Texas City, Texas, and has made Plano his home since 1969, going through the Plano schools and the band program at Plano Senior High. To keep music in his life, Jim joined the Plano Community Band in 1993 as the baritone saxophone player and became the Band's associate conductor in 1995. For Jim's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

PLANO CLARINET CHOIR

THE PLANO CLARINET CHOIR performs light classical, jazz/swing, and pop music for varied audiences across the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex. The Choir was founded by Warren Rubin, an active member of the choir and the Plano Community Band, in 2002. For 20 years, the ensemble has included amateur clarinetists from many professions, including medical, IT, education, sales, and others. Marilyn Woodruff, an IT director by trade, has led the ensemble as Artistic Director since 2008. This summer, the Plano Clarinet Choir will perform a feature concert as a guest artist of the International Clarinet Association during their Clarinetfest convention in Reno, Nevada.

MARILYN WOODRUFF joined the Plano Community Band and Plano Clarinet Choir when she moved to North Texas in 2008 as a performer, and became the Artistic Director of the Plano Clarinet Choir shortly thereafter. Marilyn is a lifelong musician and has performed and led ensembles since she was in middle school. She received her Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2004, and subsequently received her Master of Business Administration from OU and Master of Management from Harvard. Her career has been spent in the IT industry and currently is an IT Director for Hunt Energy. Marilyn is the current President of the Plano Community Band.
